MEET LISETTE SUTHERLAND

Lisette authored the Work Together Anywhere Handbook, hosts a regular podcast featuring interviews with remote-working experts, and facilitates workshops on remote working topics like hybrid working, better online meetings, and virtual leadership.

She has given presentations at events worldwide, from conferences to online Meetups, telepresence events, virtual reality, and then back to earth for a TEDx talk in Kaunas, Lithuania. For 7 years (2013-2020), Lisette served as the Remote Office Manager for the 100% remote company, Management 3.0, focused on helping organizations implement modern leadership strategies.

She served as a member of the EU/US Transatlantic Expert Group on the Future of Work brought together by Bruegel and the German Marshall Fund of the United States.

Her company, Collaboration Superpowers, provides individuals, teams, and leaders with a roadmap of how to work together anywhere – successfully through online, interactive workshops given by professional licensed facilitators worldwide.
